Hi Bookmaker!

HERE's a SAMPLE book FOR PRACTICE

If you've watched the videos on the website you saw how I created the story and art for this little book.

Now you can follow along with these coloring pages to make your own Final Art and then turn it into a handmade book. It's a great way to practice the bookmaking process.

And don't forget! The videos on the website can help you through it all:

Feel free to add your own words, especially on page 5. What does the goat say in your book?

Remember my 3 Rules:

1. Everyone is an Artist
2. There is never a right or wrong way to make art
3. Art is always an act of courage

About THE Author & Illustrator

Maya Gonzalez is an author and artist of lots of kids books, but what she loves just as much as making books is teaching other people (and especially kids!) how to make their own! She also fancies herself a pretty stylish chupacabra!
